ASSEMBLY HELD AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Students Sing; Routine
Matters Are Discussed;
Many Present.

The main feature of the day at the Normal was the general assembly in the auditorium this morning beginning at 10 o'clock. At this time a large number of routine matters were taken up and discussed, school announcements were made and several other matters considered.

A greater part of the time was spent in singing under the direction of Miss Emma Keller, head of the music department. Quite an interest has been shown in the assembly singing. The High School orchestra also rendered an overture, their first appearance in public this summer. This number was highly appreciated by the large audience, composed of the students and many visitors.

The devotional services were conducted by Rev. N. P. Patterson of the Presbyterian church, who also made a brief address, appealing to the students to lend their aid in helping the Chinese Relief Commission. This was the most important event of the assembly and the students took up their regular class work immediately after the meeting was dismissed.

It was noted that many of the citizens were present at this time and it is believed that a larger representation from the city was present today than at any other meeting. With the visitors, large number of students and faculty, both the balcony and first floor were crowded.

The campus is popular with the students and at any time during the day many groups of them can be seen lounging around under the shade trees.

Normal Class Will Stage Play Again Thursday Evening

"The Arrival of Kitty," given by the junior class of the Normal May 6, is to be staged again Thursday evening in the Normal auditorium at 8:15. The play consists of a three act farce and is said by those who have seen it to be one of the best school plays given in the city this year.

The following is a list of statements made by those who have seen "The Arrival of Kitty": "The Arrival of Kitty, is a success,"—New York Dramatic Mirror. "The Arrival of Kitty is funnier than Charley's aunt,"—Toledo Blade. "I regret that there are not more plays of this character on the market,"—Rev. William Ulrich, Rome, N. Y. "The play was a wonderful success. The press and public are still talking about it,"—B. J. Masters, sec'y. Dunsmoir, (Cal.) Dramatic Club.

The junior class has gone to much trouble and expense in preparing this play and is paying a royalty for its use. It will probably be the last class play to be staged this summer.

Is Ada Overlooking an Opportunity?

What has become of the battery of artillery that Ada was organizing a few months ago? The Evening News after some investigation has reached this conclusion—that Ada is overlooking an opportunity in failing to finish what was started in the late winter. A battery of artillery is more than a civic ornament; it is a real financial asset. The national government pays the necessary armory rental, keeps thirty-two horses, pays the artillerymen a regular salary and keeps four men on guard and in charge of the horses day and night. The monthly payroll is a neat amount of money. Wewoka with only fifteen percent of Ada's population maintains, according to the regular army inspectors, one of the best batteries in the United States. Wewoka with twelve percent of Ada's population has a company of infantry. Konawa with eight percent of Ada's population has a company of infantry. Holdenville with thirty percent of Ada's population has two companies. What these towns are doing so successfully Ada is surely able to do. Tomorrow an officer will be in Ada to see if our embryo battery can be revived. What shall we do about it?

FIGHT FOR LIFE STARTS IN COURT

Boy Charged With Murder
of His Chum is Being Tried.

(By the Associated Press)
WARSAW, Ind., May 31.—Trial of Virgil Decker, 18, for the murder of Leroy Lovett, 20, said to be his "double" was set to begin in the Circuit Court here tomorrow before Judge L. W. Royce. Two of Deckers brothers and his mother, also under indictment on a charge of murder, will be tried separately.

Although Virgil Decker is said to have confessed to having murdered Lovett, a boon companion, early in March, the authorities have failed, so far as is known, to learn the motive. The young man is said to have declared in one of his numerous statements that "the devil told me to do it and I just did."

Lovett was found fatally injured at a railroad crossing twelve miles west of Warsaw after he had been struck by a freight train. The body was taken to Bourbon, where Fred Decker, a brother of Virgil, and Mrs. Lydia Decker, mother of both men, claimed the body as that of Virgil Decker.

Accepting at first the claims of the Decker family to the body, a search was instigated for Leroy Lovett, who it was said, had been with Virgil Decker a short time before the accident. This brought the Lovett family of Elkhart, Ind., into the case and upon viewing the body, it was claimed as their son Leroy. Further investigation disclosed the deceased had died from injuries other than those received when struck by the train.

The Deckers stoutly maintained the body was that of Virgil and it was some time before they admitted their error. The state, it is said, bases its charges against Fred Decker, Calvin Decker, another brother, and Mrs. Lydia Decker, the mother, on the theory that a conspiracy existed to kill Lovett, substitute his body for that of Virgil Decker, and collect $20,000 life insurance which Virgil carried in favor of his brother Fred.

Virgil Decker's whereabouts were learned several days after the accident, when an uncle with whom he was staying in Marion, Ind., notified the authorities. He was arrested and taken to Warsaw, but maintained his innocence for several days.

Influenced, it was said, by Mrs. C. B. Moon, wife of the Kosciusko county sheriff, Virgil Decker was said to have confessed to the crime. His story, in substance, as related by witnesses to the alleged confession, was that Lovett and he left Elkhart by automobile and stopped at a cottage on the Tippecanoe river near Fred Decker's farm where they spent the night. He is alleged to have declared he awoke before Lovett and seizing an iron bar, struck the young man over the head with it, leaving him in the cottage, apparently dead.

Returning shortly afterward from his brother's farm with a horse and buggy, he is said to have told the authorities he found Lovett partially conscious. After changing clothing with him, he is said to have confessed he helped the injured lad into the buggy and drove to the railroad crossing, unhitched the horse and left the buggy containing Lovett on the track.

In another alleged statement, Decker is said to have involved John Ivagnollo, who was arrested and later released when Decker refuted the charges.

RAILWAY WORKERS LOSE 400 MILLIONS

Two-Thirds of Raise of 1921
Deducted; Leaders
Withhold Comment.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 1.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted railroad employees last July by the railroad labor board was ordered deducted beginning July 1st in the board's decision announced today. From the increase last year of six hundred million dollars a year, in salaries of railroad labor, nearly four hundred million will be cut; it is estimated by the reduction directed by the board.

In the case of the general class of maintenance of way laborers the entire increase of 8 1-2 cents an hour was withdrawn, while in others of the classes having the larger number of employees the cuts ranged from 13 to eight cents and ten to six cents an hour, as compared with the award of last July.

Although the wage cuts are to apply only on the 104 roads, which had filed petitions for the decreases, the board's announcement said that application of other roads would cause the same reduction to be placed in effect on these lines.

Union leaders withheld comment on the board's decision, but it had been freely stated during the board's hearing that decreases of 10 to 12 per cent would meet with little opposition.

Plans for Paving of Alley and Block on Stockton Completed

The city commissioners have passed resolutions authorizing the advertising of bids for the paving of one alley and one street in the business district of the city. Bids for this paving will be received until June 14.

The street to be paved is South Stockton from Main to Twelfth. Paving boosters have been at work to get this block paved for several months. The alley of the Oklahoma State bank block is also to be paved. It will consist of concrete, running from the west side of Townsend avenue to the east side of Stockton.

No bids were received for the paving of eight blocks on South Townsend avenue when advertised for the second time. South Broadway is to be paved as soon as the papers can be made out.

CONNON SALUTE SOLDIER DEAD

Battery of Field Guns Take Part in the Exercises
at Wewoka.

(By the Associated Press)

WEWOKA, May 31.—(Special)—The national salute of twenty-one guns fired by Battery A of the First Regiment of field artillery closed the Memorial Day exercises at Oakwood cemetery, one mile south of Wewoka. Several thousand people had marched to the cemetery in which veterans of five wars are buried. After a beautiful program had been rendered by the Wewoka band and a female chorus, supervised by a reading by Mrs. J. A. Baker, the graves of the silent sleepers were buried in flowers.

Following the decoration of the graves a firing squad of riflemen fired the rifle salute to the buried veterans. A grim faced bugler who had seen some of the fiercest fighting in France stepped to the front of the pavilion and sounded "taps" the most impressive of all military calls.

As the last note of taps was still lingering in the air the battery of 77's stationed on the hill just back of the cemetery opened fire. A tense silence gripped the vast audience as the crash of the guns echoed away through the surrounding hills. In the audience were a large number of veterans who had awakened to the music of the barrage and no doubt were thinking of the bloody days of the drive to Sedan.

Earlier in the afternoon an interesting program had been rendered at the armory under the auspices of Richard Harrison Post of the American Legion. L. A. Fowler who was in France with the Seventy-Seventh ("Lost Battalion") Division in France, presided and introduced the first speaker of the day, C. Guy Cutlip of Wewoka. Mr. Cutlip in a beautiful speech presented to the orator of the day, Luther Harrison of Ada, a bouquet of flowers as a token of the post's appreciation of the fight Mr. Harrison made for the American Legion Hospital Bill in the state senate.

NEGRO SECTION OF THE OIL CITY IN A MASS OF FLAMES AT NOON

Governor Robertson Declares Martial Law in all of Tulsa County and Instructs Adjutant General Barrett to Take Charge; Negroes Fleeing From Home, Half Naked and Barefooted; End Seems Near.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 1, 2 p. m.—Seventy-five persons, whites and negroes, have been killed in the race outbreak in Tulsa, according to a telephone message to Governor Robertson here today from the chief of Police at Tulsa.

Martial law in Tulsa was ordered by the Governor at 11:15 this morning and Adjutant General Barrett placed in command of the city. The order invoking martial law was later extended to include all of Tulsa county. The order will place the adjutant general in supreme command of the county. The governor's message to the adjutant general read as follows:

"I have declared martial law throughout Tulsa county and am holding you responsible for maintenance of order, safety of life and protection of property. You will do all things necessary to attain these objects."

Signed J. B. A. Robertson.

TULSA, June 1.—Nearly ten square blocks of the south side of the negro section of Tulsa, where an armed conflict has been in progress between white men and negroes since early last night resulting in the death of at least six white men and fifty negroes, and rapidly increasing list of wounded, were in flames early today. The fire was reported spreading and threatened to wipe out a white residential section in the Standpipe and Sunset Hill additions.

State troops under the command of Adjutant General C. F. Barrett arrived at 9 o'clock this morning to take charge of the situation, augmenting local units of guardsmen who were called out last night.

At this time there are reports of sporadic shooting and the situation seemed to be easing.

Detachments of guardsmen were scattered throughout the city prepared to meet all emergencies. Guards surrounded the armory, while others assisted in rounding up the negroes and segregating them in the jail, convention hall, baseball park and other places which had been turned into prison camps.

The trouble is reported to have been the result of the arrest last night of Dick Holland, negro, for an alleged assault on an orphan girl in an elevator. The negro was spirited away from the county jail soon after two o'clock this morning by deputies from the office of Sheriff McCullough, who refused to divulge his whereabouts. Officials declared he would be given a speedy trial as soon as the situation had quieted down, a change of venue being sought if necessary.

The first attempt to fire the negro sections was made about 1:30 this morning, when white men openly threatened to destroy the entire section. Two houses at Archer and Boston, used by more than 50 negroes as a garrison, were set on fire at that time and an alarm was turned in. Efforts of the fire department to lay the hose were stopped by a crowd of armed white men and the department returned to its station.

The attempt to destroy the negro houses on Archer street was resumed at 6:40 this morning, when almost simultaneously fire began to burst from the windows and doors of many homes. Soon dense clouds of black smoke enveloped the location. Under cover of the smoke, armed men in motor cars and on foot threw a cordon about the place. The negroes were still surrounded this morning and occasional shooting gave warning that the conflict still raged and occasional shooting was being waged.

The first shot was fired soon after dark yesterday, and came when a police officer attempted to disarm a negro. According to the officer the negro resisted and was shot dead. His body lay in the street more than three hours. A white man was killed shortly afterwards at the court house.

Negroes remained in many of the burning houses until they were enveloped by fire and threatened to fall, then they could be seen by the score darting from doors with hands upraised and crying "don't shoot," as they dashed through the smoke to surrender and be taken to jail.

A twenty year old white boy thought to be named Olson, living at Sapulpa, died at 8:30 following a battle of an hour earlier at the Frisco depot, in which two negroes are reported to have been killed. Carl D. Lotpisch, 28, Randall, Kansas, was shot through the heart and taken to a hospital at 6:30 this morning. He died shortly afterwards.

F. M. Baker Havelin, Kansas, 27, shot in the back with buckshot, died in a hospital this morning.

An identification found in a dead man's clothing bore the name of Norman Gillard.

Mrs. S. A. Gilmore, a white woman, was shot in the left arm and side at 7:30 this morning. Mrs. Gilmore was standing on the front porch of her home when she was picked off by a negro sniper, one of a score or more, barricaded in a church.

F. L. Curry, 26, son of Judge Curry, was slightly wounded in the neck. His wound is not serious.

A. B. Stick, 29, city clerk of Sapulpa, is near death from bullet wounds, which entered the back, going directly through the body. Stick was standing on the steps of a leading hotel watching the fighting when a stray bullet struck him down.

G. T. Punkard, 34, also of Sapulpa, a Frisco conductor, was in the caboose of a Frisco train when shots fired into a crowd went wild and hit him in the chin and shoulders. His wounds are not serious.

Lee Fisher, 20 year old truck driver was shot in the left leg and thigh. He will recover.

S. C. Slinkard, 25, Tulsa, car repairer for Frisco, was crossing Main street a few minutes before the first firing took place, when a speeding automobile filled with armed negroes ran him down, fracturing his left leg.

Reports were heard that Musdisapproved it and added that Muskoguee and Waggoner, had been ordered to proceed here at once. A special train is being made up.

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, June 1.—(3 P. M.)—Throughout the morning long lines of negroes streamed westward along the streets leading to convention hall. Many wore their night clothes and ran to safety in their bare feet. Their sunken eyes told of a sleepless night and their ashen faces bespoke a gripping fear.

Men, women and children carried bundles of clothing on their heads and backs. The articles they saved were varied and in many cases would have been ludicrous but for the awful gravity of the situation.

In one case an aged negro woman supported by an old man wrapped about with quilts and blankets, and apparently very sick, was immediately placed in an automobile and hurried to a hospital.

A white girl was reported killed on North Peoria in the vicinity of

The Death-Bed

We watched her breathing through the night,
Her breathing soft and low,
As in her breast the wave of life
Kept heaving to and fro.

So silently we seemed to speak,
So slowly moved about,
As we had lent her half our powers
To eke her living out.

Our very hopes belied our fears,
Our fears our hopes belied—
We thought her dying when she slept,
And sleeping when she died.

For the morn came dim and sad,
And chill with early showers,
Her quiet eyelids closed—she had Another morn than ours.

—Thomas Hood.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

At last, after a long absence, Marguerite Clark has returned to the screen. She returned in a screen version of the popular stage success, "Scrambled Wives." In this movie a newcomer, Ralph Bunker, is seen playing opposite Miss Clark. This vehicle gives the dainty Marguerite ample opportunity to display the charm of which her many followers never tire.

This picture shows Miss Clark (I beg your pardon, Mrs. Williams) enjoying a cup of tea while "on location." The fact that she is lurching alone does not mar her pleasure.

Movie Notes.

Phyllis Haver used to play the piano in a small theatre.

Jackie Coogan is going into vaudeville, appearing first in New York at a weekly salary of $2,500. He's six. Jackie is the youngster who appears with Charlie Chaplin in his new five-reel comedy, "The Kid."

John Barrymore has been tendered a contract by D. W. Griffith for his forthcoming production of "Faust." Lillian Gish will play Marguerite.

Report has it that Larry Semon is soon to wed his former leading lady, Lucile Carlyle. She has played opposite the comedian for some time.

"King Lear" is to be done in celluloid by Louis B. Mayer. John Stahl will direct and Lewis Stone will probably have the title role.

At the McSwain.

With a story by a popular author, acted by a favorite star, supported by a cast of prominent players and directed by a well known director, "Dollars and the Woman," which will be shown at the McSwain theatre today should be the motion picture event of the year. Alice Joyce is the star. Albert Payson Terhune the author and George Terwilliger the director. Every care was taken by Vitagraph, the producers, to make this production one of merit. Great attention was paid to little details, many of which might escape the film fan unnoticed, but go to show the thoroughness with which Vitagraph made this production. For instance, in the banquet scene a real dinner was served to the 200 persons in the episode. It was a full course chicken dinner, and it is needless to say that the participants were doing something other than acting when filmed. The action is real.

At the American.

E. K. Lincoln, the famous romantic screen star will be seen in the American Cinema Super Special, "The Inner Voice" at the American theatre, on Thursday and Friday.

"The Inner Voice" like the majority of the other great dramatic successes of the present day and of the past ages, has as its main motive, the eternal struggle between right and wrong; vice and virtue.

This photo drama in many respects as a piece of dramatic writing, approaches the technical perfection and human interest of the great dramatic masterpieces in the history of literature. It is said by great literary critics that the outstanding feature in the works of all the writers who have been accepted as the greatest of their age, has been the fact that in their works they have touched with an unerring hand the responsive human cord in the hearts of their readers.

The scenic settings of this picture are all huge. Neither cost nor expense has been spared in the making of this production.

It is to these elements that "The Inner Voice" owes the phenomenal success which it has enjoyed since its first showing at the Strand and Broadway theatres, New York.

LAW PERMITS PRIVATE CLUBS TO HOLD BOXING BOUTS

(By the Associated Press)

TOPEKA, Kan., April 17.—Private clubs and organizations may hold boxing bouts in Kansas, by the grace of the 1921 legislature. In effect, the enactment repeals the stringent anti-boxing law which has been on the statute books nearly forty years. It limits the boxers to amateurs but provides that admission may be charged.

Of the numerous attempts to repeal Kansas "blue laws" during the recent session of the legislature, passage of the boxing bill was the only one that succeeded. It won, however, only through a spirited fight, after a former bill to repeal the anti-prize fight law had met with defeat.

The movement to legalize amateur boxing bouts was championed by the American Legion whose leader in this particular was the Rev. Earl Blackman, pastor of the Christian church, Chanute, Kan., who gained the title of the "Fight Chaplain" of the Thirty-fifth division overseas through his prowess as a boxer, referee and ring enthusiast.

CONGRESS HEARS DRAMATIC PLEA FROM FILIPINO

Philippine Resident Commissioner Isuro Gabaldon

In a speech which was given very close attention and was frequently applauded.

"At one time," said Commissioner Gabaldon, "Congress had before it no less than thirty resolutions expressing sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people, if not actually urging England to grant independence to Ireland. At that time, also the Filipinos were knocking at your door. Out of the womb of war, many European republics were born, and America has rejoiced to uphold the same. And yet the claim of the Filipinos is still unheeded. Must there be exceptions, then, in international justice?"

"My plea, gentlemen of the American Congress, is that you ignore no longer the repeated requests of a deserving people for an independence that rightfully belongs to them. The granting of independence now affords the United States a golden opportunity to give to the world unanswerable proof of its sincerity, its consistency and its altruism. It will be the greatest example of square dealing in the history of the ages."

"Do not think we are not appreciative of all you have done for us. We are. America has truly treated the Filipino people as no other nation has ever treated an alien race in all history. The high points of the American policy in the Philippines have been consistently inspired by altruism. We know that you were actuated in your labors by the desire to contribute to our own welfare."

"And we love you perhaps most of all for your solemn promise to grant us that which we hold dearer than life itself—our freedom. Independence is our national ideal. It is our all absorbing aim. It grows stronger every hour. For the spirit of nationalism never dies. Much less can it be subdued. We believe that we can never hope to be a sturdy nation if we are to rely forever on the magnanimity of the United States."

"America's task in the Philippine Islands is finished. What you have assumed as your sacred obligation in that part of the world has been fulfilled. A people with a medieval system of institutions has been transformed into a conscious nation, imbued with all that is modern in the activities of nations. And if you give us independence our gratitude to you will increase a thousand fold; it will last forever if you keep faith with us."

"There is but one issue in the Philippine question, and that is: Is there today a stable government on the Islands? In the Jones law you promised independence upon the establishment of such a stable government. Your own Governor-General has officially reported that there is a stable government in existence today, and we also have submitted plenty of evidence to substantiate its existence. Therefore, we hope and expect America will now carry out its pledge."

CRIMINAL LAWS MAY BE CHANGED

Sanity of Prisoner will be Considered, According to Reports.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 31.—The time may not be far distant when the law will read that the criminal is presumed to be insane until proved sane, according to the report of the Psychopathic Laboratory of the Municipal Court of Chicago issued here today for the first time in three years.

The report was issued here today simultaneously with an address
by Municipal Judge Harry Olson
on the subject at the commencement exercises of The Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls, Ia., this morning.
"The movement in respect to criminal law reform," continues the report, "is perhaps the more insistent as there is a gradual realization and recognition of the complete inefficiency and breakdown of our present ideas and methods of handling crime—a complete realiza-

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

New York women are going to do things whether they need to or not by the looks of the reports from that city. First, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, society matron, made known her decision to appear in motion pictures. Next, Mrs. Gouverneur Morris, wife of the well-known author and herself well known as a society woman, opened beauty parlors
just off Fifth avenue, and now comes Mrs. George W. Loft, wife of the candy manufacturer and former congressman who is to be a "dollar
a year" woman.

Her appointment was announced
recently by Police Commissioner Car-right of New York City. She has been sworn in as special deputy police commissioner. She will receive but a dollar a year for her services and will have charge of the morality and welfare work with the aid of sixty police sergeants and lieutenants and twenty-eight policewomen. She hopes to clean up the city's dance halls.

Mrs. Loft has long been known for her activities in all causes for the betterment of conditions affecting women and children. For several years she has been in charge of personnel work among the several hundred girls employed in her husband's candy factories. She has an office in the large manufacturing building in which she has carried on this work day by day and as systematically as if she were a paid
instead of a volunteer worker.

As treasurer of the mayor's committee of women and the active head of much of the city work for women and children Mrs. Loft is well known to the police women of the city, but she has never heretofore taken any part in police work except as it touched upon other phases of city welfare work.

ODD BITS ABOUT WOMEN
Putting her knowledge of sculpture into dressmaking, Miss Mir-iani Boslogue succeeded in her chosen profession, until today she is considered one of the foremost designers of gowns in the world. Her tion that our present methods are futile, costly, demoralizing and inhuman, both to public and delinquents.

"Almost all murderers and most suicides give plenty of warning.
Now that we know that the typical dangerous criminal is a mental defective, that he is incorrigible, that he is recognized early,
ours is the fault if we do not segregate him. There have been very few wife murderers in Chicago in which the murderer has not been previously in our domestic relations.

"The criminal runs true to form as also does the normal. If your boy is normal, don't worry about his becoming a criminal. If he is a defective he will be a delinquent if not taken care of.

"One of our chief deputies of our police force gives orders, as soon as certain crimes are committed,
to search the district for defectives.
In this way he discovered and captured the culprits in several murder mysteries and other crimes.

"That criminals are coming to be recognized as mental defectives,
irresponsible, either praecox, feeble minded, or both has taken much of the glamour from detective work and court trials, but has been compensated by making the work more exact and scientific. In fact, this understanding of the matter has come so far that the more intelligent and clever detectives are having suspects examined by the laboratory to see if they are praecox or feeble-minded, and thus know right at the start whether they would be capable of committing the crime in question or not, as disclosed by their degree of intelligence or lack of it, and the presence of dementia praecox. As an example, in one case quite recently, a detective was convinced because of very suspicious circumstances a suspect had kidnaped and murdered a girl. He had the suspect examined in the laboratory.
The mental makeup of the case convinced us that he would not be capable of committing the crime, and a new line of investigation was followed, and the case found innocent. A court laboratory should never be used as a police aid for the collection of criminals. A separate psychological laboratory should be provided for this.

In referring to expert testimony
in court the report says:
"We see some professional expert witnesses who, in testifying for the state regularly, almost invariably find praecoxes and even low-grade feeble-minded cases normal, because they remember all the details of the crime. The most dangerous of all praecoxes is the paranoid cases of the highest intelligence. They are the hardest to get by a jury, just because of their high intelligence, and the easiest to get out of an asylum by habeas corpus for the same reason.

"We find many of those holding official positions feel that because they are on the official pay-roll
they must twist, turn or omit facts, and always exert themselves to make out a case for their side instead of unswervingly adhering to the facts, the truth.

"It is so much easier for the subsidized alienist to claim all the cases for the state are sane and responsible. He has nothing to prove, the law presumes the defendant sane and responsible unless proved otherwise. By the clinical or negative method, which is the general method now in vogue, but fast disappearing in favor of the advancing positive psychological method, the large bulk of the irresponsible insane are overlooked.

"The outspoken insane cases, the clinical types, make up but a small proportion of the insane. It is the so-called latent cases of insanity that make up the bulk of the insane. The outspoken cases are so mentally disturbed that they cannot perpetrate any but the crassest assaults and are promptly isolated.
Many of the latent cases develop from time to time outspoken or disturbed periods.

"In order for some individuals,
however, to recognize mental defect
it is necessary to place a low grade idiot beside a genius, or a wild, raving maniac beside a quiet, self-contained normal before they can appreciate the difference.

"For some time we have been committing the insane or feeble minded at the rate of about a thousand a year. In this way we are anticipating much homicide, suicide, sex delicts, hold-ups, burglaries, and so forth. The Municipal court is thus removing many more dangerous individuals annually than the other courts of the community,
and in a more clean, positive, scientific and humane manner, and on better conditions. Not only are they sent to appropriate institutions
but they remain there for much longer periods and theoretically at least should be retained until fit to be at large, whereas by the old method they are turned loose whether mentally fitted to be at large or not.

"The flaring up of committees and the like from time to time in response to demands of public sentiments for relief from crime, is a procedure now hoary with age.
These methods of trying to frighten crime away by harassing police and other officials is not much better than any other form of ex-orcism. Such methods have amply demonstrated their futility.

"Even if we should succeed by these hysterical methods we would only get rid of the present crop of criminals, for we must always remember that there is a new crop born every year, that the number of criminals and crimes can be closely approximated years in advance, based on birth rate, and in addition to that, the prisons and reformatories turn out about as many criminals each year as are sent there. With this unending stream of defectives being born each year and beginning to get in the hands of the law as early as seven and eight years, we see that the only logical and efficient method is to attack a continuous stream like this at its source. We have to head it off at its source and keep it headed off.

"Crime is but a symptom. Unless we treat causes the symptoms will always be there and we will have an ever ending task."

The report was transcribed from the records of the Psychopathic Laboratory of the Municipal court by Dr. William J. Hickman, director.
The laboratory costs the city of Chicago $15,000 a year. Dr. Hick-son took up the administration of the laboratory in May, 1914, adopting methods of operation with which he had become familiar in continental clinics.

Five Civilized Tribes May Get All Restrictions Re- moved Within Four Years

MUSKOGEE, Okla., June 1.—Special.—Dreams of full fledged and unrestricted citizenship nursed by members of the Five Civilized Tribes in Oklahoma for more than twenty years, seem near fulfillment now with the continuance by the new republican administration at Washington of the policy adopted by Woodrow Wilson of placing the affairs of those tribes in the hands of a native son, Gabe E. Parker, one-eighth blood Choctaw appointed by former President Wilson, was the first Indian ever named to an important administrative office in the Indian department. President Harding has gone one step farther in naming Victor M. Locke Jr., a quarter-blood Choctaw, as Parker's successor.

With the coming of Parker, governmental red tape began to untangle rapidly. More restrictions were removed last year, under his supervision than in any year of tribal history with the single exception of 1908 when, by act of congress restrictions were removed in bulk upon half bloods or less. That this policy of removing restrictions will gain momentum steadily under the new administration is indicated by the announcement of Locke that he hopes, during his incumbency to complete the work of winding up the affairs of the five tribes.

When members of the five tribes first came to the old Indian territory, they had no desire to abandon tribal traditions and forms of government. They had been promised the formation of an Indian state, in this new western country, where they would be permitted to govern themselves. With the encroachments of whites, however, and the gradual development of business customs with which the white man's coming had surrounded them, they became imbued with the desire to be placed on a common plane with their neighbors.

Appealed for Business Liberty
As early as thirty years ago leaders of the five tribes began to appeal to the government for more business liberty. They wanted tribal property sold and the proceeds divided in severalty, so that each Indian could look after his own affairs. They were tired of governmental supervision of tribal property and the doling out process of Indian payments.

By the terms of the Atoka agreement of 1898 and the supplemental agreement of 1902, the federal government agreed to the winding up of the affairs of the Choctaws and Chickasaws; yet, today, the affairs of those tribes are further from settlement than any other tribe in the group. This is due in part, however, to the fact that much of their estate consisted of mineral deposits—chiefly coal and asphalt—for which no ready market was found.

Politics Partly Responsible
When the Dawes commission was sent to the Indian territory in 1903, it was with the announced intention of winding up the affairs of these tribes quickly. Three or four, possibly five or six years, it was believed, would be all the time needed to complete the work. But members of the commission soon found that the task was surrounded with innumerable tangles and shortly after the enrollment of five tribes members was completed in 1906, their work was discontinued.

The task then reverted to the Indian department at Washington and, under that system of long-range government, delay followed delay and year followed year until the Indians became restless from resultless urgings. Efforts to get the administration of their affairs closer home—to obtain more power for the Indian office in Muskogee—proved fruitless. The Indian bureau was entangled in a mesh of red tape which could not be overcome. The politicians love for patronage, too, for the fat jobs afforded by continuation of governmental supervision of Indian affairs—is believed to have been largely responsible for much of the delay.

Three Tribes Near Freedom
So far as tribal property is concerned, the affairs of three tribes—the Choctaws, Creeks and Seminoles—are practically settled. The members of those tribes are approaching business freedom.

Cherokee tribal government has been abolished, lands have been divided in severalty and, with the exception of a comparatively few restricted Indians, members of the tribe look after their own affairs. There is little to do, in winding up of the tribe's affairs, except the delivery of a few deeds. The one remaining Cherokee school has been taken over by the federal government.

The Creeks still retain their tribal government, in form—with Maj. George W. Grayson as principal chief and James C. Davis as tribal attorney—but tribal affairs are virtually closed. There is some litigation to be settled, however, the tribe still owns in common some town lots in Muskogee and Tulsa there are some tracts of land on which deeds remain undelivered and some tribal money is yet to be divided.

In the Seminole nation, no tribal offices remain. Some tribal deeds remain undelivered, a few tracts of land remain unsold and one school is still being operated.

Big Mineral Estate Remains
Before the affairs of the Choctaw and Chickasaws can be settled, however, an immense mineral estate must be disposed of. This consists of approximately 3,300,000 acres of coal and asphalt deposits. Originally, the mineral estate contained 4,400,000 acres, but three different sales have reduced that amount. Most of the surface, above the minerals—timber, grazing and agricultural lands—has been sold.

The difficulty in disposing of minerals has been to find buyers. Shortly after statehood, a plan was suggested for the state of Oklahoma to buy these minerals, but the plan was rejected. The Indians have requested the federal government to buy, but the government demurred. One contract for sale in bulk was rejected by the government after both tribes had approved it because of the belief that graft was involved. Smaller independent coal companies have been unable to buy, except in isolated instances, because of financial difficulties with which they have been struggling in recent years.

The original estate in minerals was estimated to have an aggregate value of $15,000,000. The minerals remaining unsold now are estimated at $12,000,000.

Another condition which will delay settlement of Choctaw and Chickasaw affairs is the fact that payments for lands had four years to run and, because crop conditions have been unfavorable in many instances have been extended.

Although the new superintendent Mr. Locke, has announced a hope that he will be able to wind up all tribal affairs during his term of office, it is believed doubtful if Choctaw and Chickasaw settlements can be made inside of ten years.

Choctaw and Chickasaw tribal government still continues, at least in form. William F. Semple of Durant is principal chief of the Choctaws and Walter Turnbull, also of Durant is tribal attorney. Douglas H. Johnston of Emmet is principal chief of the Chickasaws and Re-ford Bond of Chickasha is tribal attorney. For Choctaw children, two schools are being operated by the government; for the Chickasaws, one. Tribal property in effect, is held jointly by the two nations, divided roughly three-fourths belonging to the Choctaws and one-fourth to the Chickasaws.

In the Five Civilized tribes there is a total enrollment of 101,506 Indians of which between 17,000 and 20,000 are classed as restricted. Of the total number 41,834 are enrolled Choctaws, 18,761 Creeks, 3,127 Seminoles, 25,168 Choctaws and 10,966 Chickasaws.

With a call issued by E. K. Bixby of Muskogee, for meeting of the Department Americanism commission of the American Legion to be held at Shawnee on June 13, virtually every branch of the Legion will be meeting there at the time of the post commanders conference.

Commanders of all posts, all state officers, members of the state executive committee, district and county commanders, presidents of all units of the women's auxiliary and the Americanism commission will hold a general meeting in the morning and group conferences in the afternoon. A dinner is planned by Post Bernard Gill to entertain all visitors in the evening.

Russell Litchfield Post No. 7 of Blackwell, will send 150 of its members to the national legion convention at Kansas City next fall. Leon H. Brown, post commander, has made reservations for that many members already. He expects to have every member of the post signed up before the time of the convention. The Blackwell Legion men will have their Pullmans attached to the Legion special which will leave Oklahoma City on the evening prior to the convention.

Publication of war department lists of slackers has been begun in the state following transmission of lists to Legion posts to be checked. Thus far no names have been found included erroneously. The Legion expects to aid every man wrongly listed in clearing his record with the war department.

Orbra Fair post of Poteau has made plans for holding a county-wide picnic at that city on July 4th. Invitations are now being sent out to all communities in the county to join in the hugh old fashioned gathering. In the evening a modern battle is to be reproduced in fireworks by the legionaires.

In the month of August the post will present a chautauqua at Poteau. Contracts have already been signed by post officers with a standard chautauqua course.

Spiro post of the American Legion recently paid the expenses of Thomas E. Lamb, who is in charge of the distribution of victory medals in Oklahoma, for a trip to that city. By an intensive campaign the Legion helped every man in the community to file his application for a medal in one day.

Porter post No. 204 of Seminole claims to have the honor of having for adjutant the only man in Oklahoma at the present time who wears the congressional medal of honor. Harold L. Turner, the Seminole post adjutant, captured 50 Germans and four machine guns by charging the nest single handed when his platoon had been reduced to four men near St. Etienne on October 8, 1918, according to his official citation. Turner will be the guest of the American Legion at Kansas City next fall at the time of the annual convention.

Despite the fact that the American Legion Weekly is a man's publication, women readers won the first three prizes in a contest conducted by the advertising department of the ex-service men's organ for the best written advertisement of a well known desert. There were 1,669 contestants for eight prizes, of which 1075 were men; 821 unmarried women and 273 married women. From the total number of replies received 64.4 per cent originated from men and 35.6 per cent from women.

If the Detroit Tigers don't win the American League baseball pennant, it will not be the fault of the American Legion. Nine members of the team will join Charles A. Learned post on American Legion Day, May 28.—Ty Cobb, a captain in the chemical warfare service during the war, is one of the Michigan post's best boosters.

More than 1,100 signed resolutions calling upon congress for immediate legislative aid to disabled ex-service men were received by national headquarters of the American Legion, according to a report for the week ending May 14. Nearly every form of organization in the country has responded to an appeal sent out recently by National Commander F. W. Galbraith, Jr. More than 130 resolutions were received from Syracuse, N. Y., alone. The endorsement of the Oklahoma state legislature for the legion relief program was received by congress.

Give Mr. Edison an Idea

NO ONE questions the power of good music to relax tense nerves and allay fatigue.

Edison spent three million dollars in research work to develop an instrument, which would RE-CREATE all forms of music, with absolute realism, and thus provide an instrumentality, by which the true beauties and full benefits of music can be brought into every home.

Edison wants a phrase of four or five words, which will distinguish this new invention from ordinary talking-machines. He offers $10,000 in prizes for the best ideas. Bring or mail the coupon and get a folder, that gives full particulars and instructions.

Three Days of Music Free

If you do not own one of Edison's new instruments, we shall gladly lend you one for three days, in order that you may experiment with it in your own home and learn what music will do for you. This experience may make it easier for you to win a prize.

Act quickly, as the number of instruments, which we can lend, is limited. Bring or mail the coupon. You assume no expense and no obligation.

ADA LEADING

The News believes it can say, without fear of contradiction, that Ada is the liveliest town in Oklahoma, probably with the exception of Duncan and Pawhuska. There are approximately one hundred houses under construction at this time. Work is just completed on a giant city reservoir and municipal swimming pool. Little building is manifest in the business section, but the middle of summer is expected to see at least some improvement in down town buildings.

Then, there are more than a thousand teachers in the Normal, who brighten the surroundings and make Ada take on city airs. These work and play and many are becoming well acquainted and look upon Ada as home.

With much paving in prospect, Ada promises not only to keep her present place, but actually to surpass even those few towns which are now ahead of her.

WASTING OUR SUBSTANCE

We send millions of dollars to Detroit for automobiles that could be manufactured here in Oklahoma.

We send millions more to Massachusetts for cotton goods that could be manufactured here in Oklahoma.

We send millions more to the North and East for pork and bacon that could be raised and cured in Oklahoma.

We confine our energies to crops that do not always pay to pay for other things we could produce as easily as they are produced in other states.

Then we live with our beautiful roman noses close to the grindstone and abuse our government and our economic system because we are not all millionaires.

The farmer who produces only one crop never succeeds. The state with only one product or one industry never succeeds. Diversification is the philosopher's stone that turns all base metals into gold.

THE UPWARD SWING

If any other evidence than the generally improving conditions were necessary to prove that the deflation period is over and the business outlook brighter, Tuesday's news dispatches carried that proof, in the opinion of the News. Wheat has taken a big swing upward, the cotton men are getting together and cotton is moving, and money seems to be getting easier in many sections of the country. It is true, some farm products are still below the cost of production, but the farmers have taken their loss like many business men and are getting ready to produce at a lower level and be able to make a profit on the lower markets.

Business conditions are controlled mainly by the price of cotton, wheat, corn and livestock. So long as the producers of these four staples are making a profit, business conditions will be good. So long as the prices of these commodities is fairly steady, business conditions will be steady. All of these seemingly have reached the bottom now and the upward turn has set in. If such is the case, better business may be looked for in the immediate future, and in fact is already being felt in many sections.

CHOOSING THE YELLOW BRAND

Of all the poor simpletons who have bit at an unbaited hook the blue ribbon booby prize must go to Grover Cleveland Bergdoll. In seeking to avoid military service he dodged a solemn duty, thereby winning the world's contempt and endless trouble for himself and family.

Of handsome fortune and easy circumstance Bergdoll stood high among his friends and compeers. When the war came it found him one of fortune's favorites, with nothing to mar his pleasure, and every luxury at his command. But the war opened two roads for him and commanded him to choose the way he would go. One road led thru the mountain altitudes of duty and sacrifice. The other led thru the valley of personal recreancy and ended at the gates of shame.

Bergdoll chose what seemed to him the easy way. He stopped his ears to the call of duty. He shut his eyes to the sunlight of service and turned his back on a world in need. He faced towards the shadows and left behind him everything that men of honor hold most dear. Today he is the most contemptible figure in America. His apostate course has won for him the execration of all his compeers.

If Bergdoll had only donned the khaki he would today be one of his country's heroes. Better for him that he slept today beneath the poppies with a simple cross of white marking his final resting place. Better that his fickle misguided mother were wearing a golden star and possessing nothing but a sacred memory and the proud consciousness that her son was in truth a man. But the selfishness of this pampered child of fortune has made the name of Bergdoll a hissing and a byword and dragged the very name of the woman who bore him in the deepest slime of shame.

Bergdoll is now a skulking fugitive among the enemies of his country. His brother wears the garb of a felon and looks wistfully thru prison bars. His mother is beset with federal agents and sees in every newspaper the headlines of deepest shame. And as long as a single patriotic heart beats in America the name of Bergdoll will be despised of men.

Muskogee Gets Call.

MUSKOGEE, June 1.—A call was received here at 11:30 from Tulsa, to send all available nurses. Authorities at the Oklahoma hospital at Tulsa, advised a local hospital that fifteen white persons had died in their institution from injuries received in the rioting.

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, June 1.—Nine white men are known to have been killed in the race war that raged here from Tuesday night until noon today. Chief of Police Gustafson, said that 65 negroes have been killed. Scores of whites and negroes have been wounded.

Practically the entire negro district is a mass of ruins. The loss will reach into the thousands of dollars. It is believed that the white resident districts which were menaced will be saved from the flames, which still are raging in the negro section.

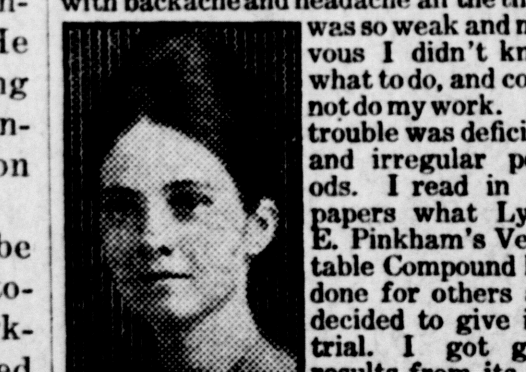

With the precautions taken it is believed that the situation is temporarily under control, although new outbreaks are feared.

SO WEAK SO NERVOUS

How Miserable This Woman Was Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toomsboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with backache and headache all the time, was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and could not do my work. My trouble was deficient and irregular periods. I read in the papers what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to give it a trial. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. F. PHILLIPS, Toomsboro, Ga.

Weak, nervous women make unhappy homes, their condition irritates both husband and children. It has been said that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous dependency, "the blues," irritability and backache arise from some displacement or derangement of a woman's system. Mrs. Phillips' letter clearly shows that no other remedy is so successful in overcoming this condition as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

tion of forces now in command of the city.

A military committee composed of seven city officials and business men to pass upon the status of the six thousand negroes, now held in detention camps, was formed shortly before noon today by Mayor Evans and the chief of police. This committee will pass upon the guilt of those held under guard in various camps.

A Revised list of the white dead at one o'clock showed nine had been killed. They are:

Homer Cline, a 17 year old white boy. Cleo Shumate, Tulsa, 24, shot early last night, died this morning. He was a tool dresser.

Carl D. Lotpeisch, 28, Randall, Kansas; F. M. Baker, Haviland,

Kansas, 27; Clyde Greeson 30, Tulsa; three other white men all unidentified are lying in the morgue.

Negroes Leaving Tulsa
BARTLESVILLE, June 1.—A train crew from Tulsa that passed thru here this morning told the day operator at the union depot that they had passed three hundred negroes near Owasso, this morning and that they were headed in the direction of Bartlesville. The operator said he was told by the crew that most of the negroes were walking.

CLOTHES wisdom means clothing thriftiness these days. Even if papa's from Pittsburg he has cast a stern and forbidding eye in the direction of clothes extravagance. He is having his old suits cleaned and pressed, and found out that some of them didn't show a trace of wear. And he is asking mamma and daughter to fall in line and keep step.

BUILDING BOOM STILL CONTINUES

Many Houses Are Under Construction in the City.

No let up in the building campaign as reported, judging from the number of building permits which are being issued daily and by the amount of building that is being done over the city. It is estimated that more than 150 residences are now under construction in the city, ranging from the beginning of the foundation to the putting on of the finishing touches. Every day families are moving into new homes and every day more families are coming to take the old ones.

Tuesday was another big day in the building business. Nearly $16,000 worth of building permits were issued. They are as follows: L. D. Jeter, $400 barn; Annie Ashby, $6,000 residence to be located in the nine hundred block on East Main street; E. L. Kyser, $3,000 residence in West side addition; J. H. Kirby, $3,000 residence in College addition; Tom D. McKown, $3,500 residence in Barringer Heights addition.

The number of building permits issued this month total 32, or an average of one each day. With the water department putting on new taps to the water main at the rate of 15 per week, a good idea of the growth is to be obtained. It is estimated that between 300 and 400 taps have been made this year.

SHAWNEE—The secondary school of Baptist University graduated 20 this year. This is a preparatory school for entry into the university proper.

ENID—Young people of Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma are expected to attend the Young People's Conference at Lake View July 25 to August 1.

Endeavor Entertained
One of the most enjoyable socials of the year for the Senior Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church was given last Monday evening at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Simpson on South Townsend.

After a large number of young men and women had gathered for the evening, they were divided into two teams, representing Yale and Harvard. A captain was chosen for each team and a number of very amusing races were had between them. These races proved to be very exciting and each team put forth a great effort to win the greatest number, but the honor was won by the Harvard team.

A feature of the evening which seemed to be very entertaining was the reading of the palms by Miss Emma Keller. Most everyone present was very anxious to find out just what the future had in store for them, and, judging from the amount of laughter caused, it was evident that Miss Keller was able to tell them just what they wanted to know.

After delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake had been served, the young people departed at a late hour declaring it had been one of the jolliest Endeavor entertainments they had ever attended.

HENRY KROTH EMPLOYED BY GOOD ROADS MOTOR

The Good Roads Motor Club has employed Henry Kroth to give his entire time to keeping up the roads in this county. At present he is working under County Commissioner Laughlin on the Maxwell and Bebee road and will continue on that road until it is completed.

It is the plan of the Good Roads Motor Club to put in work where it will be most effective, and to work under the directions and at the suggestions of the county commissioners. In other words, the officials of the club insist they are simply lending their aid to the commissioners, thus more effectively to build and keep up the highways of the county.

FEELS LIKE LIFE IS WORTH LIVING

"I feel that life is worth living again since Tanlac has built me up and overcome the troubles that have kept me weak and miserable nearly as long as I can remember," said Mrs. Iola J. Neville, 415 Rock Street, Little Rock, Ark.

"Nearly all my life I had a heavy, disagreeable feeling like lead in the pit of my stomach, and a pressure in my chest that made my heart flutter so I felt I could hardly keep on going. I slept very poorly, felt tired and worn out in the morning and was so weak and run down all the time it was an effort for me to do my work. In fact, as the saying is, I just seemed to be dead on my feet, and in spite of everything I did I kept getting worse until last July I had to give up work altogether."

"I had the worst liver trouble imaginable and could hardly stand on my feet, and at times the pain in my sides was so intense I could hardly bear it. Nothing but determination and will power kept me from giving up in despair."

"When I had almost given up hope of getting relief I decided to try Tanlac, and from the very first I began to mend, my food agreed with me and I began to feel better in every way. So I just kept on taking it until now I have taken four bottles and am a well and happy woman. My friends see the great change in my condition and I feel myself growing stronger and more energetic every day. I am glad to say a good word for Tanlac, hoping some one will try it on my recommendation."

Changes Odd Customs

(By the Associated Press)

SITKA, Alaska, May 30.—Jackson Anna Hootz, traditional chief of Alaskan natives, on April 15, took the totem pole from the yard of his home here, declared he no longer will follow the odd customs of his forefathers and announced that in the future he will be a plain American citizen.

A former declaration was issued early in April by the old chief. It said:

"On April 15, 1921, according to my own convictions, I desire to take down my tribal emblems, which are in front of my house. My purpose is to live as an American citizen."

"I wish every young man to see that I have started now in a new life as an American citizen. I have dropped all my old customs as I think they were a great burden on me."

RAINS BENEFIT COUNTY CROPS

County Agent Says all the Farmers Are in Better Condition.

The recent rains in this county have been greatly beneficial to the growing crops, according to J. B. Hill, county agent. The oats, small for the time of year, have been benefited probably more than other crops. This is especially gratifying to the farmers, in view of the fact that a good oat crop means little or no feed will have to be bought this season.

"The rains have benefited corn," continued Mr. Hill. "While corn is late, it has a wonderful color and the rains have given it new life. The moisture also has helped the young cotton as well as the other row crops, such as peanuts, kafir, sorghum, and other crops of a like nature."

"Then, too, the alfalfa fields, recently mowed, will take on new life and another cutting will be ready in a few weeks as a result of the added moisture. You see, in irrigated sections, the farmers turn the water on the alfalfa fields immediately after one cutting is taken off. In this case, the rain amount to the same as an application of water in irrigated sections. While a little alfalfa was on the ground and damaged, I do not think there was very much."

"On the whole, the rains have been worth a great amount to the farmers of the county."

VINITA—The annual Craig county Sunday school rally will be held the second Sunday in June at Southernland Grove. Invitations have been sent out to many Sunday schools in the county.

LAWTON—The Lawton baseball club has been incorporated for $5,000 and the selling of stock is under way. The opening game under organization plans will be here May 29.

college students plan

work for this summer

(By the Associated Press.)

HARTFORD, Conn., May 30.—

The college student of tradition, who spent his summer holidays idling on the verandas of the summer hotels or supported by his father on the farm or in the country homes has become rare these days. All the students of Trinity College here, with the exception of 10 men have made their plans to work during their summer vacations. These figures are given out by N. L. Hersey director of the student employment bureau.

Some of the methods by which Trinity men will earn their own money this summer will be by working as riding instructors, hotel bell boys, bakers, chauffeurs, stewards on ships, reporters and in banks and insurance offices. Some will go back to the farm to work not to loaf, they say; while others will try tutoring, selling and engineering. Several will have recourse to book-selling as did their fathers.

There is plenty of work for students if they are willing to sell peanuts, soap, hair cutters, maps, underwear and limited editions, says the director.

MARSHALL COUNTY MAN ENDS OWN LIFE

MADILL, May 31.—James H. Bounds, widely known farmer and stockman of Marshall county, living six miles south of Madill, killed himself Monday morning by firing a shot into his forehead with a pistol. He lived about an hour after the shooting but never regained consciousness. Financial losses coupled with ill health are given as reasons for the act. Mr. Bounds had returned recently from a several weeks visit to Mineral Wells and South Texas and apparently was much improved in health. Mr. Bounds owned several hundred acres of the finest land and was considered the wealthiest farmer and stockman in the county.

WILL SEARCH FOR RIVER OF GOLD IN NORTH COUNTRY

(By the Associated Press)
EDMONTON, Alta., June 1st.—Search for a lost river—a river of gold—will be undertaken this year by several prospectors, including old-timers from the Yukon and Alaska, who are now here outfitting for the long journey into the north country. This lost river bed, where the Peace River once flowed is somewhere in the big bend of the Peace, bisected by a line drawn from Fort St. John to the mouth of the Battle River.

Some years ago an Indian brought into Ft. John a fair sized gold nugget which, according to the tale told by old timers of the north, he discovered in a stream in the country to the north east of the post. Soon after this an old trapper, a white man, who made Fort St. John his headquarters, came into the Fort with a quantity of coarse gold which he had washed from some stream in a similar direction to that from which the Indian hailed.

He never visited his trap lines after this, living on the fat of the land in carefree idleness at the post. He often disappeared, whenever his supplies of necessities ran low, and would be away for a few days, returning with a fresh supply of gold.

This aged trapper lived in this manner for a number of years. He died, as many trappers and north country men have, on the trail. His body was found frozen. With him went his secret, he never having told to anyone the location of his find. The books of the Hudson Bay Company still contain a large credit account in the name of the old trapper.

Northmen, who tell the story of the mystic El Dorado north of the Peace, declare that the gold was only available after a heavy fall of snow, with which the old fellow apparently washed his mineral. From an analysis of the circum stances generally, it is thought that the place from which the gold was taken was some old river bed where the Peace once flowed, but whether the story is correct or not remains to be proved.

Prospectors, however, are putting up good money to test the truth of the theory that the precious metal does exist somewhere to the north of Clear Hills in large quantities.

This place has been in need of repairs for some time and it has caused much trouble for cars as it was rough, with worn out boards, and uneven rails, all of which made a bad place in the street. New boards are being put in, rails evened and the tracks made more passable. As soon as this is completed the work of extending the switch on the east side will be started. To do this it will be necessary to cut the pavement. Another switch on the west side of the depot is also to be extended across the street running south to 12th street. It is expected that it will be several weeks before the work is completed.
